

Majd's Magical Dinosaur Adventure

Majd saw a friendly T-Rex! The T-Rex waved its tiny arms. "Hello!" it said. Majd laughed. Helping friends is the best adventure of all!

Suddenly, Majd heard a soft cry. A baby triceratops was lost! "Don't worry! I will help you find your family!" said Majd with a warm smile.

Majd and the baby triceratops walked by a sparkling river. They met a gentle stegosaurus who pointed to a tall mountain. "Your family is over there!" it said.

At the mountain, the baby triceratops found its family! They all hugged Majd. "Thank you for your kindness!" they cheered. Majd felt happy inside.
